NATALIE

My conscientious work gave glory to God.

BOGDANA

I treated thousands of sick children as a pediatrician.

CLAUDIA

God answered my prayers for the healing of my aunt's cancer.

BENJAMIN

My presence in my extended family eventually brought about the reconciliation of my mother and her father.

LIEN

My courage in the face of chronic illness inspired thousands to live thankfully and generously.

CAMERON

I painted beautiful pictures for my grandmother.

JULIAN

I saved a small child from being run over by a speeding car.

GREGORY

My life gave love back to God, who loved me already when I was in my mother's womb.

LI WEI

I painted a banner that hung in a small church and inspired people to worship God with all of their lives.

NATHAN

I rescued a small dog that was drowning in a river, to the great relief of the family it belonged to.

JULIA

I wrote an inspiring song that Christians all around the world began to sing in their own language.

VESNA

I gave my younger brother the courage to finish his education. He was first person in my family to do so.

LEVI

I had a disorder which affected my cognitive abilities, but I became a favorite of my brothers and sisters, cousins, aunts, uncles, and grandparents because of the love I gave and received.

SOPHIA

I forgave an enemy, freeing her to experience the forgiveness of God

LAKEISHA

I answered a burning question of a classmate, making it possible for him to believe that there is divine purpose in the universe.

LIAM

I learned to listen closely to God, and he guided and encouraged dozens of people through the insights I shared.

MANISH

I stopped a nuclear war from starting.

SAVANNAH

I pioneered a clean energy source which resulted in cleaner air quality in five nations.

DOMINIQUE

My joyfulness and love were so compelling to one of my workmates that she demanded I teach her the secret of my Christian hope. I did, and she became a Christian.

ARUP

My book about the meaning of Christ's resurrection was used by the Spirit of God to touch thousands of young people disillusioned with life.

FRIEDA

I took good care of my little area of God's creation.

CHLOE

I invented a non-toxic chemical for the treatment of bedbugs.

CELESTE

I met weekly with two of my friends to pray for my school.

RAJINDER

I was precious to God because I was made in his image.

AISHA

I invited three troubled teenagers to plant a garden in my backyard, ultimately turning their lives around.

NADIMA

I always watched out for lonely and excluded people.

MASON

I loved my neighbor as myself.

ELLA

I lived a quiet life and had four children and fourteen grandchildren.

MEILIN

I developed a new agricultural method which saved many lives in a region with chronic drought and famine.

AUBREY

My investigative journalism led to the release of four imprisoned pastors in a region where Christians were undergoing persecution.

DAIYU

My arrival broke my father's obsession with his career and taught him that there are more important things in life than making money. As a result, my parents did not divorce.

MIROSLAV

My daily cheerfulness and love gave my depressed older sister the courage to live her life.

PABLO

I became the best friend of someone whose father was alcoholic. When things were at their worst, he could always talk to me.

ELMAS

I was born with unusual mental and physical challenges. As my family learned to care for my needs, they became less selfish and competitive and more compassionate.

TOBEN

My preaching touched the conscience of people around the world leading to a collapse of the sex trade across Southeast Asia.

LILY

In a situation of great poverty, I was one of the few beautiful things in the lives of my parents.

LUCAS

My public speaking inspired leaders of industry to stop polluting the world's oceans.

BAAKO

I loved God with heart and soul and mind and strength.

ALEXANDER

Every week I paid a visit to an elderly neighbor living all alone.

JAMAL

I discovered a cure for Alzheimer's disease

VICTORIA

I reported a brush fire in its early stages, saving fifty homes from destruction.

ETHAN

I donated money which was used to build a church and a school in a developing country.

YEMISI

Every day after school, I helped a young neighbor with a learning disability practice his reading.

JUSTIN

I negotiated a permanent cease-fire between rival groups in a Middle Eastern nation.

BROOKLYN

I translated the Gospel of Mark for a tribal group that had no Scripture in their native language.

MING

I demonstrated the character of Jesus to members of my soccer team who completely misunderstood who he was.

RENATA

I created a sculpture for a college campus which moved people to praise God whenever they saw it.

EMILIO

My vulnerability as an infant moved my parents to reconsider their neglected relationship with God.
